A Commitment to a Drug-Free Campus

DODGE CITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

In Compliance with Section 22 of the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Amendments of 1989, Public Law 101-226

Incorporated in the "Mission" of Dodge City Community College is the statement: "Dodge City Community College commits itself to the critical and creative value of the individual and to the capacity of each student to live a richer, more productive life as a result of benefiting from the educational opportunities provided by the institution." Central to our success in meeting this mission is the provision of a learning environment in which all of the participants are functioning without mental or physical impairment due to misuse of any controlled substances.

Over the period of the past several years, there has been an alarming increase of use and abuse of controlled substances including drugs and alcohol. This brochure is designed to provide details regarding the negative affects of such use and the penalties, campus-local-state-national, which face abusers. The faculty, staff and students of Dodge City Community College are urged to carefully review this material to become informed on these matters and, hopefully, to recognize that substance abuse is not worth either the potential physical/psychological damage or criminal record which will result from being caught violating laws and regulations.

The faculty, staff and students of Dodge City Community College are urged to get involved in the solution of the problem of drug abuse and to exercise good judgement expected of academic leaders to avoid participation in what is becoming a national and world-wide disgrace for humankind. Each of us must exercise the choice of saying "NO" to drug and alcohol abuse. This College and its Board of Trustees has made the commitment to promptly and effectively enforce the internal policies and external laws which relate to saving future generations from substance abuse.

DUI Laws in Kansas 1989-90

Driving or attempting to drive a motor vehicle while having a blood alcohol content (B.A.C.) of .10% or above is a crime per se, in the state of Kansas. Law enforcement personnel can order, prior to arrest, a preliminary breath blood alcohol test for a person operating or attempting to operate a motor vehicle. Refusal to submit to an alcohol test is admissible as evidence against a person charged with DUI. Refusal to complete required testing to determine the presence of alcohol or drugs, will result in automatic suspension of the individuals drivers' license for 6 months. Plea bargaining, or attempting to have the DUI charge reduced to a lesser charge (such as reckless driving) generally is not permitted. A person convicted of DUI is not eligible for release on probation or suspension of sentence until the minimum sentence is served. Any individual who is involved in a motor vehicle accident resulting in personal injury or death, or has a prior conviction in an alcohol related offense, will not be eligible for a diversion agreement (i.e., community work, schooling, etc. vs. time in jail). The law now allows for collection of crime victims reparations in DUI offense.

HEALTH RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH ALCOHOL ABUSE

Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person's ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described.

Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be lifethreatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver. Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than other youngsters of becoming alcoholics.
